As a participant in the New Hampshire Country Music Association Talent Search, I agree to conduct myself in a proper and professional manner and abide by all competition rules at all times during the local, regional, and national competitions. I will encourage and support all other fellow association participants. I also acknowledge that failure to conduct myself in such a professional manner may exclude me from further competition. If I should win, I will be expected to continue to act in a professional manner throughout my reigning year. I will help promote country music and the New Hampshire Country Music Association by participation in, and performing at NHCMA events; and allowing the NHCMA to use my image whenever possible to promote country music in New Hampshire. Failure to comply with the competition rules may result in forfeiture of title. All competitors MUST be a member in order to enter this competition.
